

Dear FCC:

I understand that WMFE in Florida is considering a bid from John Hagee's organization, Daystar Television Network.

This would result in the dropping of a local PBS station, in favor of Hagee's so called "Christian" broadcasting.

Hagee is no Christian. He's a hater, pure and simple, who spews out filth attacking anyone who's not exactly like him: Catholics, Muslims, Jews. I don't think this country is well-served when his kind of ugliness replaces PBS programming anywhere.

The American people are supposed to own the airwaves. But it looks like, once again, people with money will get what they want and the American people will have Hagee's kind of dirt kicked in their face.

Please don't let this happen. Please keep PBS on the air, and prove that money isn't everything, and that hate is NOT the new "norm" in broadcasting.

Thank you.

Cathryn Sykes